THIS WEEKEND - Our Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist will be re-commissioned at each Mass.

The Vigil Mass will be a Family Mass with pupils and staff from St. Mary's Primary School.

Please pray for the repose of the souls of those whose anniversaries occur around this time, especially: Fr. Austin Moran (Selby, 1934-35), Ann Barker, Anthony Marshall, Maureen Stakes, Elizabeth Moran, Leonard Fawcett, Inge McDonald, William Anthony Bainbridge, Audrey Healy, Mary Simpson, Betty Hasyn, Mary Boothman. May they rest in peace.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION - Thirty two of our young parishioners will continue their preparation for the Sacrament of Reconciliation this weekend. Please remember them, their families and their catechists in your prayers during the coming weeks.

CONGRATULATIONS to the Staff, Pupils & Governors of St. Mary's Primary School who were judged "Good" after their recent Section 48 (RE) Inspection. The report made the following comment:
"the Catholic identity of the school is vibrant and welcoming. The pupils are exemplary in their behaviour, attitudes to learning and the respect they show to others. (They) benefit greatly from the Catholic life of the school and from the commitment shown by all staff to provide a full and rich Catholic experience."

Well done to all concerned! We're proud of you all!!
