

ST MARY'S

"ONE PARISH, TWO CHURCHES"

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sunday February 10th 2019

REFLECTION

The intention of today's readings is to deepen a sense of "being called." The call, the sense of unworthiness, the response... these are all found in the main characters of today's readings - Isaiah, Paul, Peter and the fishermen. Coupled with last week's reflections on the call of the prophet Jeremiah, and the mission of the Supreme Prophet Jesus Christ, we are invited to reflect upon the call that we all have as baptised members of the Body of Christ.

FEAST DAYS THIS WEEK

OUR LADY OF LOURDES: In 1858 the Immaculate Virgin Mary appeared to Bernadette Soubirous near Lourdes, France, in a grotto at Massabielle. Through this poor child Mary called sinners to penance & thus there arose in the Church a marvellous spirit of prayer & charity, especially for helping the poor & sick.

Saints Cyril & Methodius: were brothers & missionaries, who carried the Gospel into the Slavonic countries. They translated the liturgical books into Slavonic so inventing a new Cyrillic, script to do so. Cyril died in 869 & Methodius in 885.
