THIS WEEKEND we enter the most solemn week of the Church's year - Holy Week - when we commemorate liturgically the final hours of Christ's life here on earth.

We begin with the Solemn Reading of the Lord's Passion from St. Mark's Gospel and the Blessing of Palms.

Weather permitting, the latter will take place outside at both morning Masses.

Sincere thanks to Fr. Colum Kelly who will be visiting us once again and will celebrate the Mass of the Lord's Supper & the Solemn Liturgy of the Passion in St. Mary's, Carlton thus enabling congregations of both our churches to celebrate these Solemn Liturgies in the church they usually attend.

FIRST RECONCILIATION/EUCHARIST - Our young parishioners will conclude their preparation for the Sacrament of Reconciliation this weekend.

They will celebrate their First Reconciliation on Tuesday and Wednesday of Holy Week between 6.00 & 7.00pm on both evenings.

Preparation for First Holy Communion will commence on the weekend of 13th/14th April with sessions before the Vigil Mass and after 9.30am. Mass.
